12:00pm - Lunch at The MineShaft in Hartford, WI

Originally called “The Commodore”, this converted cocktail lounge was purchased in 1975 by the brothers Tom & Will, along with their parents Dan & Dorothy Masters. In 1982, the tavern became a partnership between the brothers, then remodeled to look very much like an old mine shaft, where it borrowed its present name. Shortly thereafter, the first expansion took place and a kitchen was added, serving Mexican & other popular food choices. Tom became sole owner and set out to make the ultimate Fish Fry. Over the years, they’ve expanded 7 more times & now exceed 2000 dinners every Friday.
